COVID contingency plans

COVID restrictions could change with little notice. If we are not able to meet for public worship please attend the 9.00am Zoom Morning Prayer meeting (link below under Service times around the Parish).

If you attend that meeting and know how to change your your name if it is not shown correctly please change it to your name.

Ian

Our practice of worship is again restrained by COVID precautions and health regulations. We intend to conduct our regular patterns of worship this week with suitable modifications. It is a week by week decision at the moment.

- Mask wearing is mandatory. Disposable masks will be available (except for children under 12yo, and where a person is exempt for medical reasons) Those leading worship may remove mask for clear speaking.
- Maintain 1.5m distance
- One person per 4sq m
- Singing is not permitted
- Morning tea is suspended until further notice.
- Stay at home if unwell or if you have been to a COVID hot spot
- You are welcome to join online service via Zoom (info below)
